WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, April 23, 1869.

New York on the 21st gold was quoted at 134¾@ ; having slightly advanced since last quotation.

a Francisco—Flour, Oregon brands of extra jobbing. 2½@5 12½. Wheat, $1 40@1 50 per 100 lbs. Barsomewhat lower, choice being quoted at $2, inferior ce, $1 65@1 80. Oats in demand at former quota-. All things considered, the California market has not deemed active during the past week, especially in rd to produce, though a tolerably brisk spring trade ars to be about opening, and more stirring times are dently expected by San Francisco merchants.

rtland markets—In Portland we have but few ma- changes to note. Wheat has declined, and buyers ow offering only 60@65c. It is doubtful if much e will be thrown on the market at such figures, igh the prospect of a rise before the coming harvest is among the most probable events. Farmers can ill d to raise wheat on this coast at the going rates for past ——, and our exportations of that cereal may ibly decrease under the present low prices.

Weekly Family Market.

PORTLAND, April 23, 1869.

Some changes are noted in our report of the Family Market, mostly in favor of the producer.

Green apples are scarce and command better prices, cold crop being pretty well exhausted.

Eggs and beans are ——— upward, being quoted 1c ther than last week. Lard has slightly advanced and in good demand.

Eggs are higher and consequently scarcer.

The earliest spring vegetables are being received in all ——— and provisions of most kind are in good pply at the prices given below.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTHOMERY, JOHN M HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER, ROB'T RAMSEY,

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.

DALLES ITEMS.—We gather the following items of news from the Dalles Mountaineer of yesterday

A gentleman who has just come overland, states that the Union Pacific Railroad Company have commenced grading towards the Columbia river from the neighborhood of Monument Point. If this is true, it will be good news for the people of the Dalles.

The late rains assisted the crops very materially, so that there is now very little danger of a dearth this year.

On Wednesday evening there arrived in this city by boat from below, two hundred head of Cinnamon and one hundred head of cattle.

The Canyon City stage hereafter leaves twice a week Tuesdays and Fridays.

The Ladies' Festival, given at the rooms of the Congregational Church by the Ladies' Aid Society, passed off in a very agreeable manner.

Mr. Phillips, living on Mill Creek, has found a large quarry of marl.

D. P. Thompson, Esq., commenced the survey on Thursday morning of the Military Road, starting at the Court House in the Dalles and running to Boise City via Camp Watson, Canyon City and Mormon Basin.

The I. O. O. F. of the Dalles intend having a social time at their hall on Tuesday evening, the 20th instant, in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the Order in the United States. All Odd Fellows in good standing are invited to attend.

Bro. Bland denies that he was attempting to sell any one in the story about the bones found on the road adjoining his office, a few weeks ago, but says the facts are just as he stated them, and that the bones belonged to a soldier killed in the street by his comrade last spring and whose body had been dissected by a doctor and the skeleton, for some reason, thrown on the roof, where it was accidentally found.

AN OREGON DAIRY.—From the Advocate we clip the following item in respect to the dairy operations of Mr Cranston, near Salem, during the year 1868 and the present year up to April 20, as an indication of the success which can be obtained by proper management of this branch of husbandry in our State. The operations for 1868 were as follows:

Labor and board	$400 00
Cheese	15 00
Vats, pans and presses	85 00
Total	$500 00
Or.
14 calves	$100 00
280 lbs. butter	80 00
2,380 lbs. cheese, at 16½c	1,383 33
To[illegible]	$1,563 33
Net profits	1,063 33

The average number of cows giving milk during the year was 24, worth $30 apiece. $720 00
Profit on each cow 44 31

The operations for 1869 up to date are 28 cows
10 calves
288 lbs. butter at 48c $108 10
972 lbs. cheese, at 10½c 112 00
Labor and board from Jan. 1st to April 20th 182 00

MATTERS ON THE SOUND.—The long desired event of having a terminus to a railroad from Portland and the Columbia River, at some point on the Sound, being in a fair way of being determined, and that soon hence we can afford to defer conjecture a few days until the much [illegible] point becomes a fixed fact.

Within the past year two or three cross lines have been [illegible], which are supplied with small passenger [illegible], one the Phantom, makes daily trips from Seattle to Blakely, Orchard and Port Madison and back. The other, the Success, from Teekalet to Port Ludlow, Port [illegible] and Whidby's Island and back, daily, besides the mail steamer Mary Woodruff which makes weekly trips from Seattle to Snohomish City, Whatcom, Belling[illegible] Bay and Utsalady; to say nothing of the several small tugs plying between intermediate ports and the [illegible] camp, &c., altogether increasing the facilities for [illegible] any point on the Sound.

VICTORIA SUCCESS.—The demonstration in this city [illegible] by Democrats from the Vancouver Convention [illegible] ly be called a success. About twenty-five of [illegible] came over on the Fannie Troup about noon, bringing [illegible] them part of a band of music, and after parading [illegible] awhile, got about twenty-five more and halted in front of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, when the ultra [illegible] briefly addressed by Messrs. Lancaster, Lasater, Hall, Clark and others. Why they opened the [illegible] in Portland is unknown, but some suggest that [illegible] to recruit their forces in this city, for the [illegible] and that the attempt to "ratify" was made [illegible] to awaken enthusiasm among their brethren but if that was the object it was certainly a failure, for surely the whole crowd left this place selected before the [illegible] were done. We should judge from the tone [illegible] these yesterday that the Democracy of [illegible] Territory have but little hope.

[illegible]—Hon. S. Garfielde, Republican candidate for [illegible] to Congress from Washington Territory, [illegible] at Vancouver to-day. As many who are in [illegible] would probably be glad to hear this distinguished [illegible] "whose eloquence" one of the Democratic [illegible] say, "is unparalleled on the Pacific [illegible] Capt. Turnbull, of the Fannie Troupe, has made [illegible] to run his boat from this city and back; [illegible] at half past ten, A. M., and returning after [illegible] is over, to accommodate all who may wish to [illegible]. Let us give all due encouragement to our neighbors in their efforts to gain a complete victory in the [illegible], and let all go over and hear Mr. Garfielde to-day, who can, as they will be fully repaid for going.

[illegible]—A man by the name of William Oliver, a [illegible] of this city, who was standing on the wharf as the Gussie Telfair fired her parting gun, yesterday evening, [illegible] struck on the left side of the face by the wad [illegible] severely injured. He was taken to the Oregon [illegible] and his wound dressed, and then removed to [illegible] at the corner of Clay and Tenth streets, [illegible] is under the care of Dr. Chapman. We did not [illegible] the occurrence, but it appears from what information could obtain, that it was a very careless act to [illegible] the gun toward the crowd on shore.

[illegible]—At a late hour last night, we learned that Mr [illegible] was lying in a very critical condition. Congestion of the brain had set in, and serious doubts were entertained of his recovery.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—From a letter written by Mr T. H [illegible] to the Advocate, we gather the following statistics in regard to the Order of Good Templars in Oregon and Washington Territory:

For the year ending Feb. 1st, 1867 - Initiated, 932; [illegible] by card, 75; restored, 14. Total, 1,071. Members, 2,180.

For the year ending Feb 1st, 1868 - Initiated, 3,246; [illegible] by card, 377; restored, 54. Total, 3,677 [illegible], 5,362.

For the year ending Feb. 1st, 1869: Initiated, 2,275; [illegible] by card, 392; restored, 256. Total, 2,713 [illegible], 4,672.

The number of deaths for the three years are: Year ending Feb. 1st, 1867, 54; 1868, 23; 1869, 28.

[illegible] NEWS.—The barks Whistler and Live Yankee have not yet arrived, although several days past due.

The [illegible] left yesterday morning in tow of the [illegible]. She carried a full cargo of wheat, flour and [illegible].

The Geo. S. Wright and Gussie Telfair sailed for Victoria at six o'clock yesterday evening, carrying each about thirty passengers and 150 tons of freight.

[illegible]'s Transportation Company have tied up the [illegible] for the season, as the greater portion of [illegible] on the upper river has been brought down, and the other boats afford ample facilities for the trade [illegible].

The [illegible] river is slowly rising and the Willamette [illegible].

[illegible]—The full cargoes carried away by the Wright and Telfair yesterday, indicate an encouraging [illegible] in the trade between this city and the ports of Puget Sound and Puget Sound. Each of the vessels named, carried freight and passengers at fair rates [illegible] per ton for freight, and passage to Victoria, $15. This is no index of a healthy competition, without danger [illegible] a ruinous opposition, and while both [illegible] are enough to be fairly remunerative, the prices [illegible] as will afford some margins to shippers. We want for the interest of the commerce in that direction, that these lines will be prosperous.

A WHARF IMPROVEMENT.—We noticed, yesterday, pre[illegible] being made to render the sidewalks in our city [illegible] those on the most public thoroughfares—[illegible]. For a long time many of the covers for the boxing of gas pipes in front of buildings have been [illegible], and some of them entirely removed, so that occasional [illegible] passing along, who were not careful of their steps, would step into the holes thus left, and it was [illegible] if they came out without a sprained limb. We learn that it is the intention to have these places fixed, and we think that for the safety and comfort of pedestrians it ought to be done.

NEW BOOK.—We have received by mail the prospectus of a new book entitled, The True Principles of Positive [illegible]: An announcement of the Religion of Science and an Exposition of the Statics and Dynamics of Humanity; the Religio-Political Physics; or an answer to the great question, "If you take away my religion and politics, what will you give me in their stead?" by Calvin [illegible]ard; reviled and condemned by his widow, Mrs. Anne Eliza Edwards Blanchard, with life of the author: his writings and career reviewed. The work will comprise 800 pp., 12mo. Price $2 50.

AMUSEMENTS.—Those who attended the theater last evening, enjoyed a rare treat in the way of laughable [illegible], with which the plays were full. Although the attendance was small, the performance passed with credit to all the actors. However, we think Portland [illegible] are hardly so well pleased when neither Mr or Mrs. Bates appear on the stage. This evening the beautiful and the thrilling comedy "Our American Cousin," with a laughable Farce, will constitute the entertainment for the evening.

NEW PORTLAND SCHOOL.—The Public School at East Portland will be re-opened on next Monday, under the charge of Mr. C. C. Hall, who is a graduate of the University at Forest Grove. Mr. Hall is thoroughly competent and we predict a successful term of the school over which he is called to preside.

GRAND BALL.—The Emmet Guard, Capt. Cahalin, will give a grand Military and Civil ball on May Eve, April 30, at the Armory of the Washington Guard. All preparations are being made to render the occasion a pleasant and social affair.

FOR SALEM.—All who wish to go to Salem to-morrow will bear in mind that the P. T. Co.'s steamer will leave Vaughn's wharf, foot of Morrison street, at 7 o'clock in the morning.

NEW ORDER.—The Common Council have given notice of their intention to improve C and D streets between North Front and North West Park, by grading and laying sidewalks and plank roadways.

Common county is going ahead, and bids fair to last the remainder of the week.

The case of Bennett vs. Poppleton for slander, the defendant having called the plaintiff a traitor, was tried and resulted in a verdict of $1 damages for plaintiff.

The officers of the U. S. except the Judge, being Democrats, that party now [illegible] all their way.

The Oakland Transcript [illegible] the assessment roll of the city and the Oakland Library [illegible] Lawrence [illegible] the only [illegible] who thought it worth while to [illegible].

FIFTH U. S. The Young Men's [illegible] are fitting up shelves in their rooms over the banking house of Ladd & Tilton, preparatory to receiving a library which Mr. Ladd has generously offered to procure as soon as practicable.

EASTWARD BOUND.—Rev. A. Mann, pastor of the [illegible] Church in this city, starts on the last of [illegible] to visit the Eastern States on a few days, to attend the meeting of the Missionary Society of the Church, which is to be held at Washington City on the 12th of May.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.—Dr. Wythe will preach a sermon especially for the benefit of the Sabbath-school, at the Methodist Church this morning, at the usual hour for morning service.

AT THE ASYLUM.—We are requested to give notice that there will be no [illegible] at the Asylum after next Monday, the 26th. The exercises will be resumed at the usual hours on Wednesday morning.

DRIVEN CATTLE.—The drove of cattle [illegible] yesterday, although [illegible] made the night [illegible] seem. What is the matter?

THE CONTINENTAL from San Francisco is due at this port to-day and may be expected [illegible].

Little Things

The Newport News puts its announcements of births under the head of "New Music."

The cost of keeping kerosene lamps in repair is difficult to estimate. The last explosion of a kerosene lamp recorded in the New York papers cost a trifle over $5,000.

A colony of one hundred and fifty Mormon families flourishes at Williamsburg, near Brooklyn, N. Y. Thirty of the men have a plurality of wives, one indulging in eleven.

The Chicago Post says. "The entire gift of Ezra Cornell to the Cornell University will amount to about $2,200,000. Twenty years ago Ezra could not pay his grocer's bill. Moral—Don't pay your grocer's bill."

The editor of the Utica Observer has it bad. Says he "We detect a tendency on the part of Winter to comfortably and nestingly tarry in its poetically improvised couch amid the graceful folds of the robes adorning the reclining and lovely form of fair young Spring."

WALTHAM WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Express men, the most exacting of watch wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these timekeepers.

More than 400,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a present and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other manufacture of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country, or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring timekeeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's Patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair springs, now universally admitted by watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust proof caps protecting the movement from dust, and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary to other watches.

Our new patent stem winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success and a great improvement on any stem winding watch in the American market, and is by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public.

To CALIFORNIANS and others living in portions of the United States, where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements which tend to insure accuracy, leanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

Every watch bearing the trade mark of Waltham is guaranteed to be a thoroughly reliable timekeeper.

To prevent imposition, buyers should invariably demand a certificate of genuineness.

The trade supplied by Messrs. R. B. GRAY & CO. San Francisco, Cal., and generally for sale at retail by all respectable dealers.

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day, he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

TURDAY MORNING, APRIL 24, 1869.

The Democratic Campaign Opened.

he Democratic Convention at Vancouver, Thursday evening, nominated Gov. Moore candidate for Congress, and yesterday ning a number of the delegates came over ns city, as the result proved, to open the paign. Speeches were delivered by sev prominent politicians, in front of the mopolitan Hotel, and a little sickly huz ng was done. The demonstration, how , was not at all a brilliant affair, either as uality of the harangues, the numbers of usiasm of the crowd. There were per s from fifty to one hundred men in the et—mostly attracted by the music of the t Vancouver band But these facts have so much significance as the act of open the campaign in Oregon with such an un gnised attempt at display. It really looks though the Washington Territory Democ y had come over here to secure a return of favor this year, which they extended to Democracy of Oregon last year. They y sent into our State, east and west of the ntains, a considerable number—two or ee hundred, at least—of Democratic voters w, recognizing the fact that upon Oregon y must depend for the election of their ndidate, they come over here to "ratify," l doubtless to arrange for having the nec ary help sent over. We should have essed this to be the object of the demon ations here yesterday, even had we not en furnished with an explanation by one of Democratic speakers, who said in sub nce: "We helped you last year and now we nt you to help us." Whether or not he in ded to be understood as saying that the shington Territory Democracy came over e last year and voted, it is a notorious and deniable fact that they did do so, not only the eastern part of the State, but in this y and along the Columbia river. The city Portland was carried for the Democratic ket by that expedient, and some, if not all e officers of the county hold their offices by tue of votes thus obtained, as a comparin between the June and November votes fficiently shows. In June the county went majority for Smith, with somewhat larger erage majorities for county officers—in No mber, 123 for Grant. It will thus be seen at the Portland Democracy owe the Wash gton Territory Democracy a rather liberal lp. Whether it will be repaid at the com g election, will depend somewhat on the gilance and pluck of the Washington Re blicans. We advise them to look out for nportations as the result of the raid of yes rday.

Railroad Celebration.

In view of the anticipated completion of the nion and Central Pacific railroads within e present month, the newspapers are al ady talking of a celebration of the event, on scale commensurate with the importance of e enterprise. There will evidently be some ralry between San Francisco and Sacra ento as to which of those two cities shall ve the honor of being the place at which e celebration shall be held; but it seems rtain that there will be a jubilee at one city the other, and probably at both. We can rcely conceive of any consummation which ould bring out a more general rejoicing of e people of this coast than the completion the great railway trunk connecting the At ntic and Pacific States, and we trust that are will be immediate arrangements made r such a demonstration as we have men oned.

To the people of Oregon, though the rail ad does not connect them directly with the ates, its completion has a deep significance d importance, inasmuch as it is but the re forerunner of an early extension to us a branch line. We look upon it as certain at within the year, one, if not both, of the eat rival companies will begin to stretch out track toward Oregon, and that the same gor will be used in pushing the work along has been exhibited in the enterprises now near to completion. The people of Oregon, erefore, have almost as much reason for re oicing as have the Californians or the people the Eastern States, and we suggest that ps be reasonably taken to have local cele ations in our own State. Let us, at all ents, burn some gunpowder in honor of the eat event.

Chicago commenced some time ago ar ngements for a celebration on a magnificent ale, and all the cities of the Atlantic States ll have jubilees of their own, or will send legations to Chicago. When a train shall n through from the Mississippi to the Sac mento valley, the commercial and social portance of the event will be among the eatest of the age, and it will be meet that it recognized by general rejoicings and con atulations.

Small Notes.

The Herald declines to fatigue itself by icking the empty air." The Herald is wise. the person who does the manual labor of iting the Herald's editorials, is as feeble as matter he publishes, we would strongly vise him not to attempt even the gentlest le of kicking. The effort would be simply licrous.

We submit that it was a shameful prostitu n of United States soldiers, to place the rt Vancouver band in front of a column of n who during the late rebellion were Cop heads—as was done yesterday. During war the friends and political associates of men in that column used to shoot such n as made the music for them yesterday.

One of the Democratic speakers yesterday ded Gov. Moore upon his war record. The aker, we believe, was not much of a war n about the time the now Democratic can ate was receiving those dozen or more ol bullets in his person. It would seem speaker and the candidate have swapped ol since then.

The telegraph mentions that the Indian nts, and U. S. Indian commissioners have ived safely at the Washita mountains, with den seeds, etc., but, provokingly enough, lon't inform us whether our Jo. Smith was ng; nor never a word as to whether Joseph nosoeding with his seed enterprise. We atly fear that our Soap Creek brethren will get those new styles of radishes promised Joseph.

For the last three or four days we have re ved no exchanges from the East, save a few dates as ancient as the first half of last ruary. These are papers, no doubt, de ed by tempests and floods. We und r d well enough why they have tarried by way. But why the papers published in present age do not come to hand is not so to explain, unless it be that out of re t to old age, they have uncovered their ls, and stepped reverentially to one side le the venerable files of the past are march into camp.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

A Personal Discussion in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—In the Senate, Nye in making a personal explanation, sarcastically replied to Sprague's allusion to him as a charlatan and harlequin, and also defended the Senate, the legal profession and the reputation of General Burnside and the Rhode Island soldiers. He spoke nearly an hour.

Chandler briefly eulogized the bravery of Gen Burnside, and Abbott spoke at some length in a similar strain. Morton also commended Burnside.

Sprague took the floor and read a manuscript speech, reiterating his former charges against monopolists and their defenders in the Senate, referring with special bitterness to Anthony. He compared Nye's attack to that of a barking puppy encouraged by the presence of a mastiff. He read complimentary letters addressed to him by the National Board of Trade and many individuals throughout the country.

Brownlow and Cameron vindicated Burnside. The Senate then went into executive session.

The President to-day nominated Henry M Blake, District Attorney for Montana.

The Secretary of the Treasury will receive sealed proposals for the purchase of gold till Thursday noon next, in sums not less than $50,000, payment to be made in either greenbacks or three per cent. certificates. Like proposals will be received every Thursday.

Nominations Rejected.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The Senate was a long time in executive session debating the nomination of Sanford as Minister to Spain, which was finally tabled—yeas 30, nays 20.

The Senate also rejected the nomination of J R. Jones, as Minister to Belgium, and W R Roberts, Register of Land Office at Marysville.

Additional Confirmations.

The following are the additional confirmations: T. A. Hurlburt, of Illinois, Minister to Bogota. Silas A. Hudson, of Iowa, Minister to Gautemala. C. J. Truck, of Kentucky, Consul at St. Thomas. W. H. Wadsworth, of Kentucky, Commissioner to Mexico.

The Dyer court-martial examined ex Secretary Stanton at his residence to day, he being sick. He said he selected Dyer as Chief of the Ordnance Bureau on account of his eminent fitness for the office.

The Senate, in executive session, postponed further consideration of the San Juan treaty until December next.

The Abbott-Sprague Difficulty.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The doors of the Senate were opened at 11:20 to night. Abott sent up to be read the words uttered by Sprague, about puppy and mastiff, and declared his intention of asking Sprague if he intended to apply the term puppy to him. If so, he intended to ask a retraction as full as the implication. If refused, he would demand satisfaction outside of the Chambers.

Mr. Sumner rose to a point of order, and stated that Mr. Abbott had declared his intention to violate a law of the land.

Mr. Abbott denied making such an announcement.

Sumner insisted, and called the Chair to take notice.

At the instance of Thurman, Abbott's words were read, and the President pro tem. decided that they were not necessarily a declaration of intention to violate the law.

Mr. Thurman submitted that they required explanation at the hands of Abbott.

Abbott said he was not a duelist and did not mean anything of that sort, and meant to say the Senator must make a retraction as broad as the assertion. [Cries of "order."] Mr. Nye, entre nous, "spank him."

Mr. Wilson moved to adjourn into an executive session; carried.

The Inundations.

MONTREAL, April 22.—The inundation is nearly as bad and as great a flood as that of 1861, and yet there is not any prospect of relief. By breaking the ice the custom house is surrounded. Longueville and Sabeeve are flooded to the eaves, and a signal of distress is hoisted. Probably there is a great loss of life and stock.

CHICAGO, April 22.—Extended accounts of the inundation from nearly all the Eastern rivers are received. Railroad travel is greatly impeded, and at some points entirely suspended. The loss of property is large.

ALBANY, April 22.—The greatest flood since 1857 has come. Water is rising an inch per hour. The Hudson River road is submerged at various points and in some places washed away. Several bridges on the Central Road are carried away. Travel is entirely suspended. The flood in Mohawk Valley is the greatest ever known. The Central track is under water for miles. The Rensselaer and Saratoga road is five feet under water.

CONCORD, N. H., April 22.—There is now the greatest flood in the Merrimac since 1862. The Vermont Central and Northern railroad tracks are submerged. A raft of 915,000 logs at White River Junction is carried away.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The Western Union Telegraph closed at 42¼@42¾.

BALTIMORE, April 22.—General Lee, with a deputation of Virginians is here urging the cooperation of this city in extending the Virginia Valley Railroad.

RICHMOND, April 22.—Gen. Canby issued an order to-day requiring all persons holding office to which they were elected, who have not taken the test oath, to take it now. This will vacate a large number of offices.

BOSTON, April 22.—Stockholders of the Union Pacific railroad have adopted resolutions establishing a general office here and appropriating the sale of its first mortgage and land grant bonds and authorizing the purchase of a new seal. James Brooks, one of the government directors made a speech showing in some detail, the commencement of the work and its excellence which, considering the obstacles surmounted, is the most wonderful work of civilization, and despite a few unjust attacks, challenged the admiration of mankind.

A telegram from Chief Engineer Dodge says the Central Pacific railroad is eighteen miles from Promontory Summit, and the Union Pacific only twelve.

R. Hazard, of Rhode Island, explained the aims and operations of the credit mobilier, and its origin. There was an impossibility of getting money enough by the sale of stocks at par and its business was to furnish capital and take risk of success or failure. The price paid had not more than compensated it for the use of its capital; although entitled to extra profit on account of extraordinary risks they only got 10 or 11 per cent. profit, though the chance had turned signally in their favor.

Williams, alluding to the action of Fisk and Judge Barnard, said the company did object to a legal examination of their affairs before a competent tribunal, and said he expected the gross earnings may be sufficient to pay the just compensation. The companies intended to continue the road as a first-class one in all respects.

OTTAWA, April 22.—In the House of Commons Mr. Holt gave notice that on Friday next he would give in the papers relating to the cost of defending the frontier, and subsequent expenses of the Fenian invasion, as constituting a claim against the United States. He said his object was to give members an opportunity of expressing their views upon the speech of Senator Chandler and the proceedings in the U. S. Senate last Monday.

A bill to amend the extradition laws with the United States was announced.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—A man named Bernard McDonald, employed at Moran & Atkins' boiler works, was killed yesterday by a boiler falling, knocking him down and then rolling over him.

A man named Herman Eber was arrested yesterday for an attempt to swindle Larto & Co. out of 3,000 cigars, and the charge of grand larceny was booked against him.

An incendiary fire occurred in a dwelling house on Ninth street, near Market, last night.

Mining Stocks.

The following White Pine companies were incorporated yesterday: South Featherton Silver Mining Co., capital, $1,000,000; Eclipse Consolidated Mining Co.; capital, $300,000. The Thunderbolt Mill and Mining Co., $280,000; The Geo. Washington Silver Mining Co., $1,000,000. The Armadilla Mill and Mining Co., $2,400,000.

The California Real Estate Association have declared a dividend of 7½ per cent. on all stocks issued up to March 1st, payable immediately.

Mining stocks this morning were fairly active, leading descriptions showing still further advance

FOREST HILL, April 23.—The following was the verdict of the Coroner's jury in the case of a dead body found last night on the flume of the north fork of Oregon creek, Forest Co.:

"We find the deceased was named Warren Adams, a native of Ashburnham, Massachusetts, aged 54 years, and that he came to his death by drowning intentionally, on his part." I will add that he was a brother of J Adams of the above named place.

NEVADA

VIRGINIA, April 2.—The total subscription for the Gold Hill sufferers, so far, foot up about $9,000.

Efforts are still making to subdue the Gold Hill fire, water being sent down the Great Pearl shaft. Nothing can be done in the Yellow Jacket mine, owing to the smoke and gas.

The Enterprise says there remains but twenty miles of road building to complete the connection between the Central and Union Pacific roads, and that the gap will be filled up in a week.

The rider of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s pony, was arrested to night upon his arrival, for fast riding through the street. He was taken before the police court and fined $10. He arrived at 7 p.m., was tried, paid his fine and discharged in forty minutes. Quick work all around.

Julius Augustine, a merchant of Silver City, died yesterday. He was insured in the North western Mutual Life Company for $4,000.

The dwelling and outbuildings of Thatcher True, in Lund valley, twenty miles north of Reno, were consumed by fire a few days since. The family are left quite destitute.

Eighty-four Chinamen arrived this forenoon to augment the force employed in grading the Virginia and Truckee railroad. The work is being pushed vigorously. Rooms for the company's offices are being fitted up next door north of the agency of the Bank of California.

The weather is pleasant and business is improving.

The Pacific Union Company shipped four bars of bullion last night, valued at $9,257 27. Wells, Fargo & Co., 1,293 pounds; value, $33,946 27. Total, $43,203 54.

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, April 23.—News received yesterday from Capt. Christianson of the schooner Surprise, Nootka Sound, reports that he found six decapitated bodies of white men in that vicinity. They are supposed to be a portion of the crew of the wrecked bark John Bright. Two other bodies were also discovered near the same place a short time before. No doubt remains that the men were murdered by the Indians. The natives, armed with knives and other weapons, followed Captain Christianson with angry demonstrations, and warned him to leave their village. He says that unless the government sends up a gunboat at once, the lives and property of the whites will be in danger.

The sloop Reserve arrived from the west coast yesterday. She reports that Capt Rays' whaling expedition has been very successful. A number of whales had been captured.

SIGNIFICANT.—In the late Democratic Convention at Vancouver, on Thursday evening, when it became apparent that Gov. Moore would be nominated Mr. Dugan and his friends of the bed-rock Democratic persuasion, tried to get an adjournment. They had no taste for getting into a position where they must support a "Federal butcher," or bolt, neither of which things a bed-rocker will ever do except under compulsion. They failed, however, to procure an adjournment, and the policy Democrats forced the nomination of Moore. It was a noticeable fact, that at the ratification talk here, yesterday, neither Mr Dugan nor the only bed-rocker who spoke, mentioned Gov. Moore, except incidentally, during their speeches, confining their remarks almost exclusively to the abuse of Mr. Garfielde, and the usual twaddle about the "immutable principles." It is evident enough that the bed-rock Democrats will not support the candidate with any appetite any more than they did Blair.

It sounds queerly to hear Democrats who were original and constant rebel sympathizers, hurrahing now for soldiers who fought in the Union armies. In the case of Blair, it turned out that his services and scars and "all that sort of thing," did not appeal very strongly to Democratic sympathies. His war record as a Democratic campaign document was not a success. A similar thing may happen to Gov. Moore. The apostacies of Union soldiers have not been, as a general thing, very highly appreciated in the United States.

A moralist took his daughter to see the Siamese twins. "Observe, Prudence, my dear," he remarked to her, "observe the care exercised by Providence which united these two citizens, and think what a heavy and wearisome fetter might that membrane which attaches them together have been, if, instead of being brothers, they had been strangers to each other."

Alexander Dumas has had to leave Paris to escape his creditors, we are told by a correspondent. At last accounts he was at Havre, and had issued the following manifesto on the dead walls: "Men of Havre! the author of Monte Christo is among you. Come and see him." He sells his autograph to raise funds.

THE NEW ADMINISTRATION has filled the various offices; so have BARMAN BROS., filled their spacious store, corner Front and Morrison Streets, with the Latest Styles of Merchant Tailoring Goods, consisting of French Cassimeres, Beaver, Broadcloths and all kinds of Vestings, also a fine Stock of Ready Made Clothing, and Gents' Furnishing Goods, which they are enabled to sell lower than any other House in this city, as their Mr Isaac Barman is constantly in the San Francisco market, purchasing at the most advantageous prices, of which their customers always have the benefit. Go and see them—no trouble to show goods.

MR. M. REESE, the millionaire of San Francisco, visited and patronized THE OREGON DISPENSARY on his first arrival in this city, because he heard that it was the cheapest and most elegant Drug Store on the Coast. We also are furnishing the toilet articles and medicines to the guests of Mr. Holladay for the excursion trip to Victoria and Puget Sound, which is a further evidence of our increased popularity. Everybody now procures all articles in our line at THE DISPENSARY because our medicines and goods are fresh, pure and cheap.

LOUYEA & KALLENBURG,
Oregon Dispensary, 73 First street.

IT is nothing more than the truth, if people tell you that though KOHN & FISHEL are not selling off at cost, they nevertheless do sell at lower rates than any other house in Oregon. Their stock of Clothing cannot be surpassed. It is undoubtedly the finest, neatest and most fashionable in the State. Every person would do well to call on Kohn & Fishel, No. 91 Front street, before purchasing elsewhere.

AN ARTICLE OF TRUE MERIT.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" are the most popular article in this country or Europe for Throat Diseases and Coughs, and this popularity is based upon real merit, which cannot be said of many other preparations in the market which are really but weak imitations of the genuine Troches.

HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to fit on to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, hereto fore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 22.

A talk about Office-seekers and Appointments.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Trumbull in a speech in the Senate to day, said: "For the past six weeks, Senators and Representatives have been mere solicitors for offices for their constituents, who are seen hanging round the doors and anterooms like so many beggars." He intended to introduce a bill making it a penal offence for any member of Congress to solicit office or sign papers of recommendation for office seekers.

Fessenden said the same thing had occurred at every change of the administration in the last thirty years. He wanted the evil stopped, but could not see how to do it.

Cameron deprecated the appointment of persons to office without the knowledge or recommendation of Senators or members of Congress from their State. The present administration had done this to a great extent. There had not been a man appointed to office from Pennsylvania at his solicitation. He had no doubt nine tenths of the appointees were his friends, for they could not make appointments from the Republican party of Pennsylvania without appointing his friends. The course of the administration in this respect was bad. He cited several cases where unfit appointments had been made without his knowledge.

Abbott's amendment to Carpenter's resolution providing that appointments to department positions shall be made according to State population, caused debate on the relation rights of the North and South.

Sawyer asserted that the Democratic State of Kentucky had more of these appointments than the entire Republican South. He had been so told by a member of the Cabinet. Southern Senators must remember that the white Republican vote in the South is very small.

Wilson favored recognizing every section, but he thought the dividing out of clerks had been equally made during the States. He ridiculed the movement and said it would bring contempt on Congress.

Sumner said the question of fitness, and not locality, should be paramount.

The Senate then went into Executive session.

Confirmations.

The following are additional confirmations: N. Niles, of Illinois, as Consul at Victoria, Vancouver's Island; A. P. Sullivan, Collector for New Mexico; Geo. W. Bowie, Naval Officer, San Francisco; Thos. C. Donaldson, Register of Land Office, Boise City, Idaho.

The President withdrew the nominations of L. M. Busson, as Chief Justice of Montana; H. Richardson, Attorney for Montana, and H. A. Miller, Minister to Sandwich Islands.

Treaties to go Over.

The Senate discussed the San Juan treaty. The indications are that it and the Sandwich Islands treaty will go over till next session.

NEW YORK, April 22.—News is received of the arrival of the agents and U. S. Indian Commissioners at the Washita Mountains with garden seeds, farming implements, &c. They were heartily welcomed by the Indians and military. The Indians take great interest in what is being done for them. Several Arapahoes chiefs, with sixty Indians, came in ready to go on their reservation.

Railroad Accident.

UTICA, N. Y., April 22.—The engine of the advance night passenger train, on the Black river railroad, was thrown from an embankment last night. H. Crocker, Superintendent of the road, was killed. The fireman had his leg broken and others were injured.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The watch case of Wemmily Wheeler, Parsons & Co. was robbed of 17,000 dollars worth of property, yesterday.

The national board of fire underwriters met to day. An ordinance was adopted regulating the storage and sale of petroleum, gasoline, etc., which fixes the test of the place so used at 110 Fahrenheit.

The ship Frederick has arrived, having picked up sixty-three passengers from the North German ship Adele, burned at sea. She was from Bremen for Rango.

A new building on Grand street, Jersey City, was demolished by the wind to-day. Eight or ten carpenters were buried in the ruins, one being killed and another dangerously injured.

RICHMOND, April 22.—General Raymond, formerly a member of the Confederate Congress from Virginia, died to day.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., April 22.—The Connecticut river is 19 feet above low water mark and is still rising. No serious damage is reported. Dwellings in the exposed portion of the city are partially submerged.

NEW ORLEANS, April 22.—A heavy suit has been instituted against the directors of the Bank of Louisiana, individually, for the recovery of the deposits lost by the removal of the assests of the bank into the Confederacy before the capture of New Orleans, and for loans to the Confederate Government.

CHICAGO, April 22.—The Journal's special has dispatches from Admiral Hoff, which represent the situation in Cuba as unchanged. Both parties claim successes. Large numbers of troops are being received from Spain. So far as has been ascertained, there has been no landing of troops or arms from the United States to aid the insurgents.

The case of the seizure of the Mary Lowell will probably be referred to the home courts, which will take action in the matter. Sumner will endeavor to postpone action until the adjournment to-morrow.

RICHMOND, April 22.—Henry A. Wise is seriously ill and not expected to recover.

CINCINNATI, April 22.—Negotiations between the Ohio, Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroads, have been resumed and are said to be nearly perfected.

PORT HENRY, April 22.—The great damage, estimated at $150,000, was done by the giving away of a point at the head of Mill Brook to day. The Postoffice, stores, bridges, dams, &c., were carried away.

Cuban Affairs.

HAVANA, April 22.—The Catalonian volunteers, with detachments of mobilized colored troops, have sailed for Lisbon.

Advices from Neuvitas say Gen. Lescar had arrived from Puerto Principe, and would take supplies of provisions and ammunition on his return.

General Latona is appointed commander in-chief of the Spanish forces in the central department. He has been reinforced by 7,000 troops from Havana, and will commence a vigorous campaign against the insurgents.

The steamer Borgia, on her way to Fernando, with prisoners, halted at Porto Rico with her machinery disabled.

The steamer to day brings 1,000 troops from Spain.

Ca-sanava, the American, has been released.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

BERLIN, April 22.—The Prussian Government has instructed her Ambassador at Paris to thank Marquis Lavellotte for his pacific speeches in the Corps Legislatif.

LONDON, April 21.—The negotiations for a Council Conference between France and Belgium, are suspended.

MADRID, April 21.—An informal meeting of the members of the majority of the Cortes was held to day to nominate a candidate for the throne. No result was attained. The Cortes considered a plan for the reorganization of the army on the Prussian system.

MADRID, April 22.—The result of the conference of members of the majority of the Cortes, left the members more widely divided than before. Serrano declared for the choice of Montpensier as king or for the declaration of a Republic as the only possible alternative. Prim remained silent. These proceedings and his conduct have given rise to a wide spread belief that he would not be willing to accept the Presidency of a Spanish Republic.

The Presidentess of the Chicago Sorosis went to Washington to see the inauguration, and was denied a room at the hotel because she was unattended. She seated herself in the office, with the remark that she would'nt stir until she was provided with a room. The clerk gave it up.

W. T. Democratic Convention

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At three o'clock the convention was again called to order. The Committee on [illegible] of business made their report, which was read, and [illegible]

Mr. Cavanaugh. Your Committee on Order of Business respectfully submit the following report:

1. The adoption of the old and Declaration of Principles.

2. The nomination of Delegate to Congress.

3. The appointment of [illegible] committee to consist of two members from each Judicial District, and one from the State at large.

4. The manner of [illegible] addresses to be made by the delegates to the respective Judicial Districts.

5. That in all cases the voting be by counties and roll call, and that the members answer to their names as called.

Respectfully submitted,
W. H. NEWELL, Chairman.

The Committee on Resolutions submitted the following:

Resolved, 1. That the Democracy of Washington Territory rely upon the justice and patriotism of the American people for the ultimate triumph of Democratic principles which alone can effect the full and complete restoration of the American Union and restore to the people and the States respectively their rights under the Constitution.

2. That this Government was founded by white men, and that we are opposed to the extension of the elective franchise or citizenship to negroes, Indians or Chinamen.

3. That the recent attempt on the part of the Radical party in Congress to disfranchise the people of the Territories indicates a purpose in that party to destroy the liberties of the people.

4. That we are opposed to the proposed 15th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

5. That the exclusion of any State from representation in Congress in time of peace, is a dangerous assault upon the liberties of the people in violation of the principles of our Union and subversion of the Constitution.

6. That we are opposed to the present system of Government taxation, and are in favor of raising the necessary revenue for government purposes by an ad valorem tax on the entire imports and property of the country.

7. That we favor the construction of railways for the development of the vast resources of our Territory, and believe that the Government should aid in the construction of the same and we acknowledge the important services rendered to our Territory in projecting the North Pacific Railroad by the late I. I. Stevens, and that we will vindicate our veneration for the memory of that illustrious statesman and patriot, by rebuking the efforts now being made by one of his deadliest enemies, and most vehement calumniators, to take the seat in Congress once so ably filled by Gen. Stevens.

Upon reading this, Van Vleet moved to strike out the last clause. Newell seconded the motion. This gave rise to a lively discussion, which was participated in by Newell and Van Vleet for the motion, and Clark and Dugan against it. Newell thought the mention of the name of Stevens in comparison with any other, would be an insult upon the honored dead. He had probably forgotten the time when he was reviling Stevens himself so bitterly in 1861. This raised the ire of Clark and Dugan, who thought the resolution would be a very material help in the canvass. Newell was afraid some naughty Republican might try to make it appear that he was the "calumniator" aforesaid, as he had been in the business somewhat, and his huge form swelled to more than its ordinary huge proportions. The clause was finally stricken out, when the resolutions were adopted as a whole.

Nominations being in order, Mr Dugan nominated Judge Mix; Mr Lee nominated W. H Newell; Mr. Stine nominated R. L. Sharpstein, Van Vleet nominated Columbia Lancaster Frank Clark nominated C. B. McFadden. Drs. Shiel and Steinberger and P. P. Dugan were also nominated. Judge Lancaster came forward and rather complainingly said he had been brought before the Conventious of the Democratic party for years as an "empty bucket in an old well." He didn like to disobey the voice of the people, and he thought they were calling on him to run. Newell and Sharpstein declined because they thought they could not be nominated. Dugan wanted the nomination for his heroic services.

The first vote was taken, as follows: McFadden, 22; Lancaster, 16; Newell, 6; Mix, 6. Dugan, 4; Shea, 2, Sharpstein, 2, Steinberger, 2.

Without varying from this much the Convention took six votes and then declared a recess until half-past seven o'clock. During the recess the caucusing was most fearful to behold. Buttonholing and sleeve-pulling was terrible, but it seemed to reach no definite result, although Judge McFadden's chances seemed to be very bright, and it is probable he would have been nominated if he had gone into another vote. About half-past seven a dispatch was received from McFadden positively withdrawing his name, from before the Convention. This was soon noised about among the members, when it became evident that a strong combination was forming in the interest of Gov. Moore.

At eight o'clock the Convention met again, when McFadden's name was withdrawn. Mr. Collins nominated Gov. Moore. The vote was taken and stood as follows: Moore, 26; Mix, 17; Dugan, 6; Newell, 6; Lancaster, 5.

An effort was now made to stave off the nomination by the old-liners, but without avail. The 8th vote was taken and resulted in the nomination of Moore, he receiving 38 votes, Dugan 10, and Lancaster 12. This was followed by speeches full of bitterness, invective and bitingsgate toward Mr. Garfielde, with little congratulation for Moore. The bed-rockers were rather sullen, and only accept Moore as a forlorn hope. He is not their choice, nor is he a representative of their party. Concerning Gen. Moore I know but little, but there is a screw loose somewhere, or a Union General would not be standing side by side with the Democrats of that Convention.

The Convention then chose O. B. McFadden Levi Skelton, J. L. Rankin, J. S. Fowler, Frank Clark, P. P. Dugan and L. H. Gordon as the Territorial Central Committee.

A. J. Cain was nominated for Prosecuting Attorney in the 1st District, J. B. LaDu in the 2d, and J. P. Judson in the 3d.

After the usual vote of thanks the Convention adjourned.

THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.—As far as heard from, thirteen States have adopted the fifteenth amendment, to wit: Kansas, Nevada, Louisiana, Missouri, West Virginia, Maine, Massachusetts Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Arkansas New Hampshire, Connecticut, and Rhode Island by their late elections also endorse it, and there is a certainty, sooner or later, of the following States adopting it Vermont, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, New York, Ohio, Indiana, Tennessee, North Carolina, Florida, Alabama, Georgia, making 28, two more than necessary, unless Texas, Virginia and Mississippi get reconstructed and admitted by representation in Congress. The only States that may be likely to vote against it are Delaware, New Jersey, Kentucky Maryland and Oregon. California may be considered doubtful, and New Jersey might be considered the same if the people of that State had a vote upon it.

SOCIETY IN TEXAS.—Texas is certainly in need of something stronger than mere moral suasion. Bishop Simpson writes that a species of social ostracism exist even in the great commercial cities, where there is perfect security. The mere fact of membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church is sufficient to [illegible] a man's family out from society. At the same time any Northern man who abuses the government and curses the negro is welcomed into the best society. The state of affairs is not flattering to [illegible] character [illegible] are [illegible] the last which either [illegible] could commit wrong, but a Northern man of independence is fair game to the Ku Klux [illegible] who have no conscientious scruples about [illegible] influences of [illegible]. Pittsburg Chronicle.

A French archæologist claims that the mythology of the old Mexican race is the origin of those of China, India, Egypt, Persia, Greece and Rome, and that the New World is not only the oldest geologically, but is every sense of the cradle of the human race.

MONTANA.

The following items are from the Montana Post:

We were informed by a gentleman just arrived from Salt Lake, that he overtook quite a number of persons on their way to some reported new gold discoveries on the head of Snake river, who had left White Pine for that destination.

As we predicted some time ago, this fearful and loathsome disease has broken out in our Territory and at any moment may appear in our midst. Messrs. Parchen & Paynter last night received two applications from Deer Lodge for vaccine matter one of which came from Dr. Crepin, who stated that the disease had appeared in Deer Lodge, also about twenty miles above Deer Lodge.

We were favored yesterday by a visit from Charles Hendrie, Esq., who has been on a tour of observation throughout the best mining camps in Montana, and has made several investments. Mr. Hendrie states to us that there will be a greater amount of developments made in quartz the coming summer than any one year before in Montana. He is more confident of the prosperity of this Territory, based upon a system of quartz mining, than before, and says that there are more really rich lodes being developed than ever before.

The sale of town lots in Corrine, the new railroad town, commenced yesterday and continued all day. The lots were sold at prices ranging from $400 to $800. The sale so far has been confined to lots lying south of the railroad track. The town having been laid out into lots, the railroad company sold every other one, the alternate one being reserved to the owner of the land upon which the town was located. The bidding was very lively, the sale being attended by all the Salt Lake merchants, particularly those who have been tabooed by reason of being Gentiles. A large number of buildings are already in process of construction.

A down easter who head of the fabulous wealth to be found in the sewers of New York, recently "went after it." When he emerged from the filth, his peculiar appearance procured his arrest. His high rubber boots, leggings and and overalls were removed very carefully, and the contents of a well filled carpet sack containing a medley of articles, were poured out before the astonished eyes of the Superintendent of Police. Old watches, silver spoons, knives, jewelry, bottles of liquor, ten cent pieces, pencil cases, rings, etc., made up the lot. One of the rings is supposed to contain a valuable diamond. Upon the whole we rather think he must have earned them.

BAD CONDITION OF MEXICO.—It seems that the promises of prosperity held out by Juarez were as empty as soap bubbles. Matters in Mexico are really in a worse condition to-day, if we may credit recent advices, than they were under Maximilian's brief rule. It is stated that Juarez admits his inability to govern the country without the aid of the United States. It is reported that he has prepared a manifesto announcing this view, and asking the United States to establish a protectorate over the distracted country. We have in this an explanation of the rumors of Mexican jealousy which have reached us from time to time. Little more evidence of the necessity which impels the President to appeal to our Government is required than that already furnished by the last mail. Escobedo, instead of enforcing Books.

[From the Philadelphia Press.]

During the year 1868, the total number of ...blications in the United States amounted to ...69. Fiction heads the list with 711 When ...consi...that this is three times the num...r of any other publication, a feeling of ...arm is ...ised up. The editions of such ...e much larger than those of any other kind. ...ey are ...ly very ...t, so that every ...petite ...s supply. If they were all ...od ...e ...ld be regretted. ...nt ...of them are meretricious, a ...urth ...rely nonsensical, an eighth ...ashy. Leaving only an eighth fit for reading, ...d the small ...ty of this eighth fit for ...ndy, we may well ask what is to become of ...e youth of A...ca who feed upon such ...oisons? And be it remembered the youth ...e the novel-readers. Nothing short of a ...ational book inspector, a publication censor...hip, will ever reach the evil; but as such an ...ffice would be too anti-republican for enter...inment, we suppose the vain-glory and cu...idity of authors will keep up the spawn ...f mind-murdering books, until even the ...ost morbid taste revolts, and so proves self-...orrective.

Religious books come next in the category, ...umbering 258. Quite complimentary, to the ...evotional spirit of our people, if allowed to ...tand alone, but almost a burlesque upon sa...red things when compared with the giant ...owth of sensational literature. The little ...and-books wherein are arranged the clip...ings of the literary curiosity-hunter, the cal...ulations of the astronomer, and the inquiries ...f him who, for lucre, is willing to give you a ...local habitation and a name," directories, ...lmanacs, &c., come next, and foot up 173. ...Perhaps these books are more useful than any ...ther. They are the Indices rerum of every...body, and are subjected to everybody's ...raft. Like a state banking institution, ...hey honor every call with either currency or ...gold.

The dry but noble study of the law claims ...attention next. One hundred and twenty-...hree authors have given the results of their ...oil to the profession. This class of works ...nay multiply too fast, but there will come a ...d ...correcting time. The chaff and ...wheat may be allowed to go together for a ...while. The principle that guides the stars, ...preserves nations, and teaches while it se...cures to man his destiny, cannot be smothered. ...It will glow like a diamond, no matter how ...much it be surrounded by verbiage or ...by the ...ile theories. The day of the ...winnowers and codifiers is not far distant. ...They will do what this hour forbids to the le...gal author.

Biography commands a large attention. One hundred and thirteen heroes have sought ...immortality through this medium. We al...most wish there were no such publications. The man who is worthy will take his place in ...history, the only fitting tombstone to mark ...departed greatness. Every biography looks ...like a special effort. The narrative is almost ...always ...ated. It is an advertisement of ...qualities which else would perish, as they ...might as well, for no one man can possess ...every virtue. The brightest essences are often ...found in the loudest bodies. History ...can ...up the ...s ...r that ...quishes ...man from his surroundings. It is the only ...true glass to reflect character, and it even has ...been charged with partiality. Yet its per...versions may be traced, for their fountain ...is invariably in the historian who relies ...too ...ly upon biography. The rivulet ...would have been pure but for the muddy ...source.

One hundred and five imaginations have ...rhymed and sung. Medicine, history, liter...ature, education, philosophy, mathematics, ...and all the subjects that generally interest ...and characterize a free-thinking, intelligent, ...and hastily-scribbling nation go to make up ...the balance of the year's product. Only 1,...866 of the number were bound. The rest are ...waifs. Finis will have for them a sephulchral ...significance.

During the year there published 4,400 ...new books. Happy England! There is time ...there to write as well as read. In twenty ...years, how much of the brain of this year ...will survive? A score, perhaps, of all these ...books will rank as standards. Verily, a man's ...brains had almost as well be in his coffin as on ...paper.

WON'T DOWN.—The right of woman to the ballot is among the living issues of the day. The Church journals in the east are taking sides on the subject. The New York Independent leads on the affirmative, the Northwestern is fierce in tone on the same side; while the Western is more than positive in hostility to all that looks in that direction. The editor closes an article in a late issue of that paper in the following strong terms:

"Talk of rights! Women have a right to be saved from the turmoil of public life and the wrangling of politics. She deserves exemption from this drudgery, while her social and domestic duties can only be met, and her highest sphere attained and filled, under the protection of that public sentiment which excuses her from taking part in public debates, and from the responsibility of casting votes."

DRAWING TO A CLOSE.—Kossuth is said to be old, poor, decrepit, and living on charity.

OF THE

Weekly Oregonian.

FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent, the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest It is the oldest paper in the State, and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to everything of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,

AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS

OF

Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana.

TELEGRAMS FROM

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon standpoint

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware, and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.

TERMS:

One Year	$3 00.
Six Months	2 00.
Three Months	1 00.

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been a favorite paper for mailing to friends in the East. It will be mailed from the office at subscription rates.

Subscribers will find on each paper, with their names, the date on which their subscriptions expire, as entered on our books. In renewing, the name of subscriber and post office should be distinctly written

All papers are discontinued at the end of the time for which they have been paid, the date of which is always printed with the name each week.

BRIEF ITEMS.—A large quantity of flour, grain and other produce arrived by the Willamette river steamers yesterday. A vast amount of the productions of this valley have been shipped via this port during the present season.

The race at the Union Course on Wednesday between Acker's horses Legal Tender and Grey John was won by the former.

Mr. Farley, who was injured by a fall some time ago, is recovering under the treatment of Dr Jim.

The great quantities of mud collected upon the depressed intersections of the cross streets with Second, where the plank roadway is laid, are being shoveled up and hauled away, adding much to the neat appearance of the last named street.

We noticed a remarkably well executed map in the show window of Mr. McQuillan's Art Gallery, on Front street. It indicates the location of the various districts of the city, and we presume was gotten up for the use of the Fire Department.

The fine weather yesterday again brought out the full forces of mechanics upon the numerous improvements going on in our city.

Night before last a large number of Washington Territory men came over from the two conventions at Vancouver and remained at Portland, enjoying themselves until the "small small hours," when they returned on the Jennie Troup. It reminded us of the times when the solons of the Oregon Legislature used to come down from Salem to visit the Insane Asylum, although Cox, of Josephine, was not with them.

A number of our citizens are making preparations to attend the Odd Fellows' celebration at Salem on Monday, the 26th inst. The P. T. Company will run a through boat on Sunday, for the accommodation of those desiring to go.

There will be a special term of the Circuit Court for Clackamas county, held at Oregon City on the 12th prox.

Portland Ferry No. 1, has been drawn off and her place supplied by the repaired "Frush boat, which is doing service," as an East Portlander says, "between the city of East Portland and the west bank of the Willamette."

The Geo. S. Wright having a full cargo, we heard that the Fairfax advanced the price of freight to Victoria, yesterday, to $6 per ton.

The Almatia is now full and ready to go to sea. She will sail shortly.

Judging from appearances yesterday, it is safe to say that the spring is now fairly upon us.

FROM THE UNIONIST.—From the Salem Unionist of Wednesday, we gather the following items: The third term of the present school year, at the Willamette University, commenced on Tuesday with an average attendance.

[illegible] has invented a contrivance for fastening of leather straps from a machinery belt to a [illegible] that surpasses anything yet seen. It is a small metal box, open at one side and each end, with a small roller in it that will admit of the shortening or lengthening of the leather strap at a moment's notice. It is far superior to the Roland buckle, as no wedge is used.

At the term of the Circuit Court held last week in Yamhill county, Presley Hall was tried and convicted of manslaughter, and sentenced to ten years imprisonment in the Penitentiary. It will be remembered that Hall shot his father some months since. A plea of insanity was put in by the defence, but it was not made out. He was taken to the Penitentiary by Sheriff Gates this week.

The P. T. Co.'s steamers Albany and Echo, left Eugene City Tuesday morning, each with ninety tons of freight on board. It is understood that this amount will take about all the freight now ready at that place.

POST OFFICES.—Since our last item under this head the following changes have transpired in regard to postoffices in Oregon and the adjoining Territories:

Postmasters—Benj. P. Wilson, postmaster at a new office called Vernon, in Marion county, Oregon; John [illegible], Swinomish, W. T.; Thomas Ellmaker, Long Tom, Oregon; Isaac Vandayn, Independence, Oregon; [illegible] Gans, Oswego, Oregon; Charles Moore, Walla Walla, W. T.

Mail agents—received and forwarded to postmasters—[illegible], Lewiston, I. T.; B. M. Washburn, [illegible], W. T.; Felix Hirsch, St Clair, Marion Co., Oregon; Franklin Cable, Jordan Valley, Oregon; [illegible] Wright, Molalla, Oregon; Wilson Carl, Mountain, Oregon; J. R. Graham, Beater, Clackamas Co., Oregon; John W. McGrew, Lincoln, Oregon; [illegible] Barnhart, Pilot Rock, Oregon; Henry Gans, [illegible]; Wm. H. Martin, Martin's Bluff, W. T.; [illegible], Grande Ronde, Oregon; Owyhee county, I. T.

Postoffices have been discontinued: Mount [illegible], I. T.; Fon d'Oreille, I. T.; Willow Creek, Montana [illegible].

Jumped [illegible].—The woman mentioned yesterday as having been [illegible] and locked up with such difficulty, was again before the courts yesterday on the charge of trying to burn the Patton House, in this city. She had only been out of jail on the first accusation a few hours, before she began the same old pranks of [illegible] for those about her, and using threats until it was [illegible] necessary to bring the law to bear again in order to keep her in subjection. She was accordingly taken before Justice [illegible], yesterday, and [illegible] has for some time been proprietress of the Patton House, being the same who was fined three hundred dollars a few weeks ago, [illegible] the sum of six-bits to the officers who had, after much trouble and searching, restored to her [illegible] the lost. A few years ago she stood in a very [illegible], but she has lately started down hill. [illegible] says: "all nature seems greased for her."

[illegible].—We have been requested by Mr. Saunders that he was accompanied and assisted by [illegible] in the late arrest of the Washington Territory [illegible], and that to the last named officer some of the credit of the arrest is due.

[illegible], we are informed that the case above reported to the Governor of W. T., and [illegible] to issue a requisition for the persons of [illegible], that they might show cause why they should not [illegible] in one of his Excellency's liege subjects, on his way to the gathering of the unterrified at Vancouver Convention.

[illegible], we learn that on yesterday the delegate [illegible] met with some more "unfortunitous circumstances" on his arrival at Vancouver, which blasted his hopes [illegible] all the ills of the voyage from the shores of [illegible] to the "great banks of the Columbia" were [illegible].

[illegible].—Yesterday a young man named Jas. [illegible], who has for some time been employed in the restaurant [illegible] Monument of Mr. Abernethy, in this city, [illegible] up town to his lunch, shortly after returning informed Mr. [illegible], that the horse had thrown him, and feeling badly hurt, desired that a [illegible] be called. Dr. Bodman was immediately summoned [illegible] came without delay, but it was too late to render the unfortunate young man any assistance. He survived [illegible] minutes after the doctor arrived. He had enjoyed good health for some time, and the severe fall from the horse doubtless produced internal [illegible] of the power of his enfeebled constitution to [illegible] was an industrious and steady young man, and [illegible] by his acquaintances in this city. How [illegible] the thread of life!

Captain W. S. Powell, well known in this [illegible] was badly injured by an accident at Dayton, in [illegible] county, on last Monday, about noon. He and [illegible] were engaged in raising to its place a large brace [illegible]. By some mishap the timber fell, striking [illegible] square in the face cutting a deep gash between his eyes and knocking him down. He fell some six [illegible] and when first taken up was apparently lifeless, but [illegible] in a few hours. Though his injuries are quite [illegible] is not considered in danger, and at the time of [illegible] information was getting along more comfortably.

From the Unionist we learn that the W. W. [illegible] sawing mill is now running on short time, [illegible] about one hundred and fifty barrels of flour [illegible] per week, however, the quantity will be [illegible] as the Company have a large order from California. Mr. Kinney, agent of the Company, has produced a new and elaborate brand for the quality of flour [illegible] this mill, known as family flour. The brand for [illegible] flour remains the same, which is "The X Baker."

[illegible].—A notice was sent us yesterday, of an entertainment [illegible] up by some ladies in Portland, with the request that the notice be published. The request was [illegible] in the following poetic language:

Put in above
To show you love
The ladies very dearly;
For aid of press
Yourself they'll bless
Daily, nightly, yearly.

[illegible].—We understand that a few Irish ladies of this city are collecting funds to purchase a flag, to be [illegible] to the Fenian Brotherhood, and we trust those [illegible] will respond liberally to the demands of the [illegible] fair ones. The organization of the Fenian [illegible] in this city has long been without an appropriate banner, and the laudable undertaking of their [illegible] is to furnish them one should meet with all [illegible] encouragement necessary to procure one without delay.

[illegible].—Mr. W. H. Gawley, of the firm of Meigs & Gawley of the Fort Madison mills, arrived in this city [illegible] evening from San Francisco, via Puget Sound [illegible] reports matters in a flourishing condition at the [illegible].

Hon. J. Q. Thornton, one of the old residents of Linn county and a warm friend of Oregon is on a brief visit to our city.

AUCTION SALE.—The sale of the property of Randall & [illegible], bankrupts, at auction yesterday occupied the entire day. The goods being sold by a good auctioneer [illegible] a good price. In his particular line of business A. B. R. is hard to beat. We did not learn the [illegible] of the sale yesterday, but it must have been quite large.

CASUALTY.—A man named —— Millard, engaged in a saw mill at Ranier, had his hand cut off by a circular saw [illegible] day morning. The wound was terribly severe and gave the unfortunate man great pain. He was brought to this city on the Reliance last evening, and taken to the Oregon Dispensary, where Dr. Chapman dressed the wound and made the man as comfortable as possible.

[illegible].—Information of Stephen Marshall, (whose father lately resided in Trenton, N. J., who [illegible] at Oysterville, Pacific county, some five or six years since. Any one knowing of his present whereabouts will confer a favor by addressing Richard H [illegible], Box No. 9, Pine Street, New York, or Elwood Evans, at Olympia, W. T.

[illegible].—The theater was well attended last night and we are informed that the performance was excellent. Two good pieces are on the bill for to-night, which is the last but one of Mr. Wheatleigh's engagement.

ON A VISIT HERE.—The editor of the Owyhee Avalanche has been on a visit to Boise City. While there he saw and tried the Ayl episode with very [illegible] success, however, on account, as he says, of a very [illegible] and disagreeable habit of lying down just when [illegible] don't want it to," which the thing has. He says that some of the Boise boys are very expert in riding their "saw-ing whom is now by law," [illegible] the Statesman who, when in office, bears a striking resemblance to the figure 9 struck by lightning. That's graphic at all events, and what else [illegible] our friend Lazy Jim.

[illegible] The steamer [illegible] and [illegible] for Victoria [illegible] with [illegible].

An American of eminent ability who has resided for many years in Europe, and has had rare opportunities for becoming familiar with the merits of the Eastern question, says: The late revolt in Candia was purely an artificial affair got up by Russian influence in the hope of wheedling Christendom into the support of the movement by appealing to the ignorant and bigoted hatred of the Turks, so nearly universal in Europe and America. Russia soon found that the Great Powers were not to be thus fooled into war for the sake of making for the mistress of Europe by giving Constantinople the first military position in the world, into the hands of the Czar, and she suddenly disappointed us in the scene, leaving crack brained Philhellenes to keep the cauldron boiling, until public opinion should force an intervention in behalf of the oppressed Christians of the East.

NOT A WAR MAN.—In his Knoxville speech ex-President Johnson said:

"Would to God the Government had not credit to borrow a single dollar to carry on war. Thank God, my honors have not been gained through blood. Wounded soldiers cannot attribute their wounds to me."

The rebellion made Johnson Vice President, and if we are not mistaken he was made President by a bloody assassination, and by a man, who, if he had survived the return of peace, would have been pardoned by Andrew Johnson, the traitors' friend and shield. The ex-President need thank no one for his "honors," as he has none to be thankful for.—Marysville Appeal.

The Havana Almanac for last year has tables of the population of Cuba and its different departments and civil districts for the year 1867. At that time, the total population of the Island was 1,370,000 of which 764,500 were whites and 606,550 were colored. Of the colored population, 226,000 are designated as of the free class, but this includes, besides the freemen of negro blood, a large number of Chinese. More than three-fourths of the population, white and black, is in the Western Department, where the insurrection has, as yet, hardly made its appearance.

THE CHEAPEST AND BEST SOAP in the market.—Throw away your Patent Washing Machines, &c. &c. In order to more generally introduce their Soap, the Imperial Soap Co. will sell their Concentrated Soap from this date until the first of May next, at seven cents per pound. FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 23, 1869.

Indians and Sentimental Fools.

If it were not vexatious to see people of ordinary good sense make fools of themselves, would be vastly amusing to hear the wiseres of the Eastern States prate about Indians, the causes of war with them, and the proper mode of getting along amicably with them. For instance, the New York Times recently said: "Half the Indian wars spring from treaty breaking and knavish dealing on our part, usually the fruit of our vicious Indian Bureau system." Again, speaking of the summary manner in which Gen. Jeff C Davis quelled an Indian outbreak in Alaska, the Times says: "It goes harder and harder every day with these hyperborean victims of military civilization; but we rather think that if such things go on, we will have to adopt President Grant's suggestion, and withdraw the military from Alaska altogether—after which there will be no more fighting or killing than there was before they went there. All that we need to do in Alaska for the present is to keep up the show of authority, and this could be done well enough by stationing on the coast a private soldier, who should wave the American flag defiantly at sunrise every morning."

The man of the Times having spent all his life where he never saw an Indian, except in Barnum's Museum—a Long Islander, bedecked, be-painted, and be-feathered for the occasion—imagines himself peculiarly qualified, by intense ignorance of his subject, to give advice and speak oracularly on the Indian question. And in this delusion he is not a whit behind or before the great majority of Eastern people who know just as little of the Indians as he. The fact is, as every western frontier man knows, keeping faith is not in the Indian blood, and an Indian was never born who would not steal from a white man or kill him for his horse or gun, if he felt sure he could get off undetected. The exercise of such propensities upon the white man is the cause, nine times in ten, of all our Indian wars. Western men do not generally sit very tamely under such grievances, and so when a thieving or murdering band of Indians perpetrates some deviltry, the western white man goes after him; then a war; the Indians generally get the worst of it; and then the sickly sentimentalism of Eastern people breaks out afresh, and we hear otherwise sensible people talking such foolery as "Half the Indian wars spring from treaty breaking and knavish dealing on our part." Every frontier man knows that, on the contrary, about half the Indian wars are got up by the Indians themselves for the special purpose of being again treated with, and again supplied with blankets.

In the Alaska case mentioned by the Times there had been murders of white men for the purpose of robbery—a crime totally unprovoked. Gen. Davis burned the Indians' village and made the red devils promise to give up the murderers, for which outrage the Times wants the military recalled from Alaska. In relation to governing the Indians by keeping up "a show of authority," we have only to suggest that the editor of the Times be detailed as the private soldier "to wave the American flag defiantly at sunrise every morning." Let him try the practical beauties of his own system. We can assure him that he never would wave that proud emblem of nationality more than about three times defiantly about his head, before he would suddenly find himself the center of a system of Indian arrows. In ten minutes more, if a dead man could see, he might behold his American flag decorating the form of some gentle savage chief; his shirt fluttering in the Alaskan morning breeze from the back of another; and the next morning, his own beautiful auburn hair decorating the romantically situated lodge of a dusky "victim of military civilization."

An Advance in Rank.

With the single exception of the war period, there has been no time in the history of the United States, when our politics have excited so deep an interest among the people of Europe, as now. And we might very truthfully add that there never was a time when Europe was so universally disposed to be so respectful to our Government, and to use such uniform expressions of good will and evidently earnest wishes for the continuance of amicable relations. It is very evident that our Government has made a very long advance stride in the good opinions of the people of the old world. Thoroughly imbued as they are with the pride of ancient government, it was probably natural enough that they should have looked upon the American experimental republic as something predestined to failure at no great age. Hence, in the past, and till within the last few months, underlying all their relations and communication with us, there has always been apparent a vein of superciliousness and want of respect for our Government. Diplomatic policy has sometimes very nearly covered up this bearing, but it has always been there, much to the wounding of honest American pride. But thanks to the American people, the whole tone of European sentiment has, as we believe, been radically changed. That this effect has been mainly wrought by the events of the last few months, is evident enough. It might have followed more closely upon the termination of the late war, had not Andrew Johnson proved himself an apostate and by his wickedness presented to the world the possibility that our people would suffer themselves to be cheated out of the fruits of their struggle. The repudiation of that bad man, however, and the election of Gen. Grant to the Presidency by an overwhelming majority, have set that matter right. Europe sees clearly enough now that the American patriots meant just what they said when they hurled from power the corrupt Democracy in 1860; that they were earnest in what they did through the years of war; that their protest against the recreancy of Andrew Johnson, expressed the clear, and unwavering judgment of the American people; that our people can and will maintain against every earthly power, a strong and enduring government; and that such government will be administered by the agents of a party whose integrity and persistence in support of the right justly challenge the admiration of the world and exact the respect of even its bitterest enemies. The utter failure of bad men of both sides to create a schism between the President and the dominant party in Congress has served to confirm the hopes which before his inauguration, amounted to almost certainty, that his elevation to the chair of the chief executive, would also be the elevation of the nation in the respect and kindly regard of all nations. The United States never occupied a prouder position than to-day, before the world; nor did any President before Grant, ever give so large hope and promise of great service to his country, in the way of advancement in rank among nations.

Small Notes

The Idahoans have got a new word "kol larups" which describes some sort of amusement. Just what it is we can't say but judging from the locality whence it comes we presume it means something like sloshing around on a big drunk.

The Olympia Transcript complimients our fellow citizen, Orange Jacobs, lately appointed Associate Judge of Washington Territory, by saying For Mr Jacobs, we can say, from a long personal acquaintance with him that he will prove himself an honor to the bench and a worthy citizen We extend him our cordial welcome

The Idaho Avalanche (Silver City, Idaho,) has a racy letter from Washington City, March 7 beginning with, "Exit a party by the name of Johnson,' said the Tribune the morning of the 4th, and Greeley was right A J is simply A J —no more Hail and farewell old maggoty-nosed nobody' old patch-work of political intestines, spiced with tobacco, scented with rot-gut and done up in veto papers, and farewell speeches about me, I and my policy!"

In California the White Pine excitement is perceptibly abating, according to the reports in the newspapers. The Chronicle quotes from the Inland Empire, published at Hamilton "As near as we can judge, White Pine is now laboring under a stress of population without a field for its useful employment." What, asks the Chronicle, does this mean? Too much population already, when the grand spring rush has not yet commenced! Can this be so? If it can be, and is, it behooves those restless and sanguine souls, who are eager to start for the new "diggings," in the firm faith that fortune awaits them there, to reflect a little before purchasing their outfit

As a cool and refreshing transaction, the following dispatch from one railroad superintendent to another, on the Union Pacific Railroad, will commend itself. A large number of passengers stopped by the snow at a small station, wanted to make an effort to go ahead. The officer in charge of the station telegraphed this fact to his superior at Laramie and received, in reply, this message "I see passengers are somewhat dissatisfied, but I can't help it. I gave 200 passengers, bound west, three locomotives and shovels, with the understanding that they should shovel through They left here yesterday morning, and have only got about twenty miles: They find it is not all play to shovel snow. One-fourth will not work at all."

That "westward the star of empire takes its way" is not merely a high sounding phrase, but a tangible fact, is illustrated every year more clearly by the commercial advancement of the great cities of the west. A well known New York commission house proprietor is quoted as giving the following opinion: "New York is losing its prestige, Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis and Chicago are fast getting to be distributing centers. The Western merchants are beginning to feel their own strength and to avail themselves of all the rapidly increasing facilities which are to enable them to act independent of New York. New York," continued he, "does not realize this, but the truth is creeping upon us slowly but surely." Railroads have done this for the cities mentioned. Chicago is the centre of more lines than any of them and Chicago is outstripping all others. When the Pacific railroads shall be completed the star of empire will rise upon the Pacific coast.

THE WEST.

The Cordwainers' or Shoemakers' strike at San Francisco still continues.

The Appeal says the great continental roads will be joined by the 25th inst., and the line will be continuous to New York.

Work on the woolen mill near Steilacoom, W. T., for some time suspended, has lately been resumed. The machinery has been sent for, and it is designed to finish the work, if possible, this season.

At Santa Cruz, California, the people are already enjoying strawberries and cream. One man is mentioned as having picked on the 7th inst., "forty quarts of fine, luscious berries, rare, ripe and of large size."

On the 1st of April there was in the State Treasury of California $1,348,737 30. The largest fund is the interest and sinking fund of 1857—$482,298 22. The next largest, Harbor Protection, $203,698 68.

Dublin (Colgan), the young man who was killed and scalped by Indians, says the White News, 7th instant, at Snake Mountain, some weeks since, arrived in town yesterday, full of life and with his top hair restored.

A correspondent writing from the city of Mexico, says an old Spanish gun has been exhumed at Mier, bearing date of 1366. It is of brass, and well preserved, and was purchased for $15 by a man who is going to present it to the National Museum of Mexico. It is believed to be one of the old field pieces brought over by Cortez to batter down the Aztecs, and which was lost in the "dismal night" of the Puente de Alvarado.

The Pacific Railroads.

A Mr. C. L. Goodrich writes, April 6th, from Ogden to the Boise Statesman, the following facts concerning railroad matters on the plains:

The track of the C. P. Railroad is laid to a point about thirty miles west of Monument Point, sometimes called Red Dome Pass. By this time he thinks it will be at Indian Creek, eighteen miles from Monument Point, and only twelve miles distant from Pilot Springs station on Hadley's stage line. There are about twenty miles of track to lay to join the two roads. They are getting along slow because they cannot get the material to the front fast enough. The C. P. is bad east of Elko, but of course will be rebuilt as soon as they can. The strife now is to get east fast, ditto with the U. P. They have to bring ties from the Black Hills.

Both companies have nearly the entire route between Monument Point and Bear River graded—what for is uncertain. Both companies are still at work side by side. The Central carries the overland mail to the end of their track. No stages yet run between the tracks, but will in a few days; meantime mails probably are accumulating. The U. P. track is laid west of Bear River, this date, three or four miles, and going on nicely. I think the U. P. is rather the best, if there is any difference, though I can tell better when I have seen more of it. Weather is pleasant here. The stages could get a big business between the termini if they were on the route

On the day following the publication of the above the Statesman contained the following "We gather some items of interest concerning railroad matters from Mr. Cyrus Jacobs, who has been out to the end of the track several weeks. There remains at this time less than thirty miles between the two ends of the track. It will therefore be not many days till the gap is closed Whether the tracks will be united, no one seems to know, but the impression seems to be that they will not The C. P. is determined to lay their track to Ogden, and the U. P. is likewise determined to lay theirs to Monument, but is grading a considerable distance west of that. For a long distance both companies are grading side by side, the grades being close together and frequently crossing each other. It is apprehended there will be difficulty when the track layers reach those places The Central is getting the start of the Union lately in laying track and pushing the work generally Which is doing the best work is disputed both are bad enough and worse than they ought to be The Union employs chiefly Irishmen and the Central Chinamen. There will be ten or twelve thousand men out of employment there in a few days, and it is probable that many of them will come this way. One squad of thirty Chinamen are now on this side of Clark's ferry, coming to Boise. The country is fearfully demoralized along the road, murders and robberies being of almost hourly occurrence.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

Appointments and Removals

WASHINGTON, April 21 The following are among the nominations made to-day J H Hutchinson, of Arkansas, Commissioner to the Sandwich Islands, Delano having been withdrawn, also a number of Quakers have been appointed Indian agents; Enoch Hodge, Superintendent of Indian affairs for the Central district Samuel L Janney for the Northern district, J C Donaldson, Register of the Land Office at Boise City, Idaho; A Grass, District Attorney for New Mexico Ab of forty Revenue officers in the various districts were sent in to-day

Senate Proceedings

In the Senate, Wilson called up the resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Navy, with the consent of the Colombian government to cause further survey for a railroad or ship canal across the Isthmus of Darien Finally the resolution was laid over

Carpenter called up the resolution asking the Heads of Departments for information in regard to the number of Clerks employed, whence they came, who recommended them, etc The question gave rise to a lively debate relative to the general question of appointments.

Mr. Trumbull deplored the abuse which had grown out of office seeking. He gave notice that he would introduce a bill next session, making it a penal offence for any member of either House of Congress to solicit or sign papers of recommendation

The Senate went into Executive session.

Secretaries of Legation—Bow, of Illinois, to Mexico, Tippett, to Vienna.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Senator Sumner has informed the Secretary of State that the Commissioner on Foreign Relations has decided to report adversely on several foreign nominations, including Pile and Carlisle. The Secretary replied that he had decided to send no nominations, but under the circumstances, the President would probably make new nominations for these positions

ST CATHARINES, April 21. —The Welland Canal will be opened to navigation to day.

HALIFAX, April 21.—Hon Jos. Howe has been elected to represent the county of Kent in the Dominion Parliament. Kellan and Lowson, anti Unionists, were elected for Yarmouth and Richmond.

BALTIMORE, April 21.—In the Circuit Court in the case of Kimberly vs. Butler, Chief Justice Chase sustained demurrer of plaintiff to defendant's plea in abatement of privilege from arrest as member of Congress He decided that the word arrest, as used in the Constitution means arrest or detention by force with a view to imprisonment, and not process or summons in a civil suit. The argument was then continued on other pleas.

NEW HAVEN, April 22.—A labor convention was held yesterday for the purpose of organizing a State labor convention. The attendance was very large MONTPELIER, Vt., April 21.—Warm weather and heavy rains and the worst freshet known for years. The basements are filled with water Damage to property very heavy.

MEMPHIS, April 21.—Weather delightful; the races very largely attended. There were two races—one a hurdle dash of two miles, four hurdles and eight leaps; time, 4:30. The velocipede mile time was ten minutes and eleven and one half seconds.

BUFFALO, April 21.—No train leaves over the Central Railroad to-night on account of high water.

BOSTON, April 21.—The overseers of Harvard College again had a meeting last night to consider the election of Professor Elliott as President, but again adjourned without action.

A convention of working women, to consult as to the general welfare of seamstresses and others

MONTREAL, April 21.—The inundation already exceeds that of 1865. Provisions are being sent in boats to the suffering families.

NEW YORK, April 21.—All the first mortgage bond land grants of the Union Pacific Railroad were taken yesterday by Boston parties, the United States providing funds sufficient to complete and equip the road perfectly, pay the floating debt, and build the Denver branch The annual meeting for the election of Directors of the company will be held at Boston to-morrow.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—Eight sailors deserted from the British steamer Zealous while officers were at dinner last evening with a party of visitors. They took possession of the visitors' boat. When fifty yards from the ship the guard saw them and fired, hitting one of them in the forehead, inflicting a slight wound. A boat containing a dozen officers started in pursuit. The deserters reached the wharf and every one escaped. So far, none are retaken.

Kenan & Kennedy's saloon on Market street, was opened last night by a man and a quantity of cigars, revolvers, billiard balls and a small amount of money taken. Manuel Francis was arrested this afternoon, on suspicion, and all the missing property found in his room

The restaurant and bakery of Henry Halseb, 614 Clay street, was entered by burglars, Tuesday night, and robbed of a fine cake and $25 in coin.

Suit was instituted in the 4th District Court by Hah Cow against the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, Ah Fok Wong, Chong and others, to recover 12 520 lbs. tobacco, valued at $12,000, in the possession of the defendants, which they will not deliver to him, and also claims $11,000 damages for its detention.

Henry Buckmann, proprietor of a grocery store on the corner of 4th and Freebon streets, was found dead in his bed this morning, with the top of his head entirely blown off. It is supposed the deed was committed with a Colt's revolver, which was found lying on his breast.

NEVADA.

VIRGINIA, April 22. —The fire still burns in the Gold Hill mines, despite all the efforts to subdue it From the peculiar circumstances of the case and the inability of the workmen to reach the seat of fire from smoke, bad air and obstructions caused by caves, it is impossible to get anything like a true and reliable estimate of the condition of things, but the impression gains ground that the damage has hitherto been under-estimated. No one now predicts that the mines can soon be reopened.

A large number of workmen are thrown out of employment, and many mails supplied by the mines are in a wadle.

Lewis Dunn, arrested at Unionville, for exploding Chinamen from that place, has commenced an action for false imprisonment against Judge Baldwin, U S Marshal Doy and R M. Daggett, laying his damages at $15,000.

The bullion shipped last night was $2,149,220 Eight hundred dollars have been received from White Pine for the Gold Hill sufferers.

The weather is still cold, but moderating.

ROUND THE WORLD - The grand excursion round the world will cost from New York to San Francisco, by the Pacific Railroad, $150 time, six days, by the China steamships from San Francisco to Hong Kong, and thence to the Pearl Islands, Ceylon $629 time, forty-four days, thence to Paris via the Red Sea and Mediterranean, $650 time, twenty-five days, and across the Atlantic $125, total, $1,550, all in currency, total time of traveling, eighty five to ninety days.

Capt. John Kellett, who has resided at the Sandwich Islands forty years, died at Hilo on the 16th ult.

OREGON.

The Eugene Guard says there are eleven divorce cases pending in the Circuit Court for Lane county, to be tried at the term now being held.

On the 12th inst., the Rogue River Valley Educational Society held a meeting at Ashland to consider propositions to build an Academy at that place

It is said that a very rich lead of quartz has been discovered near Cottonwood, Southern Oregon, and considerable excitement has been created thereby

From the Sentinel of the 17th In the case of Abraham and Levens, indicted for riot, and tried this week at Kirkyville, the jury found a verdict of guilty after but a few minutes deliberation The offence consisted of hanging a Chinaman up by the queue, in violation of the provisions of the Civil Rights Bill We have not learned the extent of the fine yet

EQUIVOCAL The Montana Post says. "The report of ex President Johnson's death was premature It is to be regretted the telegraph is so painfully inaccurate"

TRANSPLANTING MOUNTAIN PEAKS Professor Gunning delivered a lecture in Hartford, Connecticut, on the last glacial period, during which he stated that he had seen in Stamford, Vermont, a mountain of granite as peculiar as that of Superior, but of a different type. The crystals were foliated Science can find that granite at home only in Stamford. The mountain is a truncated cone. The top has been clipped off. North of the mountain there was not a single boulder of foliated granite South of the mountain there were multitudes of such boulders. Perched on the very top of Hoosac mountain the tourist may see a boulder about seventy feet in circumference, and fifteen feet high If he looks at the boulder, then at the mountain, he will see that the boulder has no kinship with the mountain The boulder is that same Stamford granite a Vermont carpet bagger unseconced on one of the highest peaks of Massachusetts. The tourist may look southwestward over Deerfield Valley 1,000 feet deep, and see far in the distance the outlines of Stamford Mountain, from whose top that boulder was torn

"LOYAL" TO THE CORE — The Seattle (W. T.) Intelligencer says: A few months since, a young gentleman of this town, who is a native of Canada, wrote an affectionate letter to his "dear" uncle, in Kingston, C. W., and, among other topics, referred to Whalen, the Fenian, who has been executed for the murder of Thomas D'Arcy McGee. Like many others, he commiserated the fate of the condemned man, and committed to paper his ideas upon the subject. By a note he received from a loving relative, last Monday, we should judge his sentiments were not appreciated Here is the epistle.

"KINGSTON, 19th February, 1869.

"BOY: Your letter received, and was duly placed on the file of the police magistrate, who will wait on you with a couple of policemen on your arrival here—the way we serve such as you.

From the Army Hospital; the bloody battle-field, the mansion of the rich and the humble abode of the poor; from the office and the sacred desk, from the mountain top, distant valley and far-off islands of the ocean; from every nook and corner of the civilized world, is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DARBY'S Plantation Bitters. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

* * * I have been in the Army Hospital for fourteen months, speechless and nearly dead At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. Three bottles have made me well again. C. H. FLAUTE.

THE NEW ADMINISTRATION has filled the various offices: so have BARMAN BROS., filled their spacious store, corner Front and Morrison Streets, with the Latest Styles of Merchant Tailoring Goods, consisting of French Cassimeres, Beaver, Broadcloths and all kinds of Vestings, also a fine Stock of Ready Made Clothing, and Gents' Furnishing Goods, which they are enabled to sell lower than any other House in their city, as their Mr Isaac Barman is constantly in the San Francisco market, purchasing at the most advantageous prices, of which their customers always have the benefit. Go and see them—no trouble to show goods.

MR. M. REESE, the millionaire of San Francisco, visited and patronized THE OREGON DISPENSARY on his first arrival in this city, because he heard that it was the cheapest and most elegant Drug Store on the coast. We also are furnishing the toilet articles and medicines to the guests of Mr. Holladay for the excursion trip to Victoria and Puget Sound, which is a further evidence of our increased popularity. Everybody now procures all articles in our line at THE DISPENSARY because our medicines and goods are fresh, pure and cheap

LORYEA & KALLENBURG,
Oregon Dispensary, 73 First street.

It is nothing more than the truth, if people tell you that though KOHN & FISHEL are not selling off at cost, they nevertheless do sell at lower rates than any other house in Oregon. Their stock of Clothing cannot be surpassed It is undoubtedly the finest, neatest and most fashionable in the State Every person would do well to call on Kohn & Fishel, No 91 Front street, before purchasing elsewhere
